Expedition Wise UK Challenges

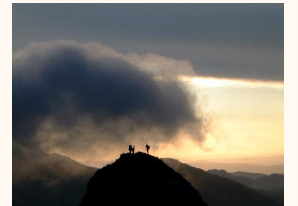

Welsh 3000'ers Open Challenge date set for 2008

Do you want a Challenge?

The Welsh 3000'ers Open Challenge runs on June 14th - 15th 2008.

The Welsh 3000'ers Challenge involves climbing the fifteen 3000ft mountains in Snowdonia over 2 days. The route covers a distance of 26 miles and ascends over 13000ft.

The walk will involve trekking up the 7 peaks of the Carneddau, the highest and largest mountain range south of Scotland, the 5 peaks of the Glyderau, with the famous rock peak Tryfan, and the 3 main peaks on the Snowdon horseshoe.

This is longer, harder, and has more ascent and descent than the 3 peaks challenge - are you up for it?
